

Integra LifeSciences Appoints Jeff Graves, Ph.D., to Board of Directors

Dec 12, 2023

PRINCETON, N.J., Dec. 12, 2023 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Integra LifeSciences Holdings Corporation (Nasdaq: IART), a leading global medical technology company, today announced that Jeff Graves, Ph.D., president and chief executive officer of 3D Systems Corporation, was appointed to the company's board of directors, effective immediately. With the appointment of Dr. Graves, Integra has added four new directors since 2021.

"I am pleased to welcome Jeff to our board of directors. He is a highly-accomplished executive with a track record of leading and transforming technically complex businesses," said Stuart Essig, chairman of the Integra board of directors. "His experience in streamlining global operations to deliver differentiated solutions to markets, including healthcare, will be valuable assets to the board and enable Integra to continue driving shareholder value."

Dr. Graves has been the president and CEO of 3D Systems, a leading additive manufacturing solutions provider to industrial and healthcare companies, since May 2020. Prior to joining 3D Systems, he served as CEO, president and director of MTS Systems Corporation, a global supplier of test, simulation, and measurement systems. Previously, Dr. Graves served as president and CEO of C&D Technologies, Inc. He also assumed executive leadership roles at Kemet Corporation as its chief operating officer and subsequently became CEO. Earlier in his career, Dr. Graves held a number of leadership and technical roles at GE, Rockwell Automation and Howmet Corporation. He currently serves on the board of directors of 3D Systems and Hexcel Corporation.

Dr. Graves received his bachelor's degree in metallurgical engineering from Purdue University and completed his master's degree and Ph.D. in metallurgical engineering at the University of Wisconsin. He has been recognized with the distinguished alumni award from both universities. He is also a master black belt in six sigma.
