Statements made at the upcoming conference may be forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. In particular, the statements related to expectations regarding each company's future valuation and financial performance, plans for executing the spin-off (including the costs related thereto), the benefits of the spin-off and change in the Company's structure to our shareholders and to each company, the taxable nature of the spin-off, future prospects of the companies as independent companies, statements concerning both companies future financial performance, including projections for revenues, market growth, adjusted EBITDA, adjusted margins, adjusted earnings per share and similar statements are forward-looking. The Company cautions that actual results may differ materially from those projected or implied in forward-looking statements due to a variety of important factors, including: each company's ability to respond to the changes in its end markets that could affect demand for their products; the ability to achieve anticipated growth rates, revenues, margins and scale and to execute on each company's strategy generally; unanticipated changes in business relationships with customers or their purchases from each company; weakness in global or regional economic conditions and financial markets; uncertainties that may delay or negatively impact the spin-off or cause the spin-off to not occur; uncertainties related to each company's ability to realize the anticipated benefits of the spin-off, including new focus and anticipated growth; the Company's inability to realize the benefits of a simplified structure; the inability to establish or maintain certain business relationships between both companies; disruptions to operations as a result of effecting the spin-off; demand for and market acceptance of risks for new and existing products; future actions of regulatory bodies and other governmental authorities, including the FDA and foreign counterparts; the Company's ability to secure regulatory approval for products in development; product quality or patient safety concerns leading to product recalls, withdrawals, launch delays, litigation, or declining sales; U.S. healthcare reform and other global austerity measures; reimbursement and rebate policies of government agencies and private payers; product development risks; additional indications and therapeutic applications for medical products, biologics, and medical devices; inventory reductions or fluctuations in buying patterns; the availability of acceptable raw materials and component supply; the ability to enforce Company patents; the ability to achieve satisfactory operating results in the integration of acquired companies; the Company's ability to maintain relationships with customers of acquired entities; the impact of goodwill and other intangible asset impairment charges if future operating results of acquired businesses are significantly less than the results anticipated at the time of the acquisitions; and foreign currency fluctuations. These forward-looking statements are made only as of the date hereof, and the Company undertakes no obligation to update or revise the forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. Additional factors are discussed in the company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including the company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended Dec. 31, 2013, quarterly reports on Form 10-Q and current reports on Form 8-K. Except as required by the federal securities laws, the company undertakes no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. Certain non-GAAP financial measures are disclosed in this presentation. A reconciliation of these non-GAAP financial measures is available on the investor section of our website.
