

Integra LifeSciences Announces Resignation of Chief Financial Officer

Chief Administrative Officer to Serve as Acting CFO

PLAINSBORO, N.J., Sep 7, 2007 (PrimeNewswire via COMTEX News Network) --

Integra LifeSciences Holdings Corporation (Nasdaq:IART) today announced that Maureen B. Bellantoni has resigned as the Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the Company, effective September 6, 2007. Ms. Bellantoni informed the Company that she was leaving to pursue other interests.

John B. Henneman, III, the Executive Vice President and Chief Administrative Officer of the Company, has been appointed as the acting Chief Financial Officer of the Company. The terms of Mr. Henneman's compensation will remain unchanged. The Company will immediately undertake a search for a new Chief Financial Officer.

"We are grateful for Maureen's service to the Company over the last 18 months and wish her much success in her future endeavors," stated Stuart M. Essig, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company. He added: "We are committed to identifying a highly-qualified CFO in the near term. I am confident that Jack Henneman, together with our dedicated finance team, will make this a smooth and effective transition as we continue to grow the Company."
